

The safety of our students, their families, and our employees is our top priority. We continue to closely monitor the Corona virus (COVID-19) and are acting based on guidance from public health experts and the guidelines provided by SCDHEC and the CDC as well as local, State and Federal authorities.

Now mandatory in the City of Columbia, all must wear a protective mask or face covering when in the building.

We also insist that the mask be worn throughout the building with the exception of in the studio while taking class. As before, this is at the discretion of the parent, as some have health issues. In this case, a written explanation must be presented to the studio to have on file in the event the city officials come calling.

Entrance to the studio remains 1545 Main St., but the lobby remains closed to visitors.

Exit will be the glass door located on Taylor St. (side of the building). Parents may collect their dancer there. A teacher or adult will be there to supervise.

Temperature is checked at the building entrance.

Students should arrive dressed in dance attire and bring only what they will need for their lesson.

Hand sanitizer dispensers are accessible throughout the building.

We encourage regular hand washing by all students and staff of the Conservatory.

Dance studio rooms are marked/sectioned off to adhere to the social distancing.

Studios are disinfected before/ after each class.

We ask that anyone attending classes at the Conservatory, monitor their health and that of their family members, and we encourage you to take appropriate precautions for preventing illness.

We ask that if you or your child are feeling unwell, please remain at home! In this event, classes would be available through Zoom, so you would need to contact studio to receive link. If we discontinue Zoom, we will give you plenty of notice.

Columbia Conservatory of Dance thanks you for assisting us in providing a safe and healthy environment for all our students and staff.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to the staff if you have questions or concerns.
